GENE O'NEIL COMMANDER

Comrades and Friends,

Over the past four years, I have served as the Memorial Chairman, for the two beautiful monuments we have placed and dedicated—in Sacrifice Field, Fort Benning, Georgia on September 22, 2006, and on Heritage Trail at the Army Heritage and Education Center, Carlisle, Pennsylvania on August 15, 2008.

Since our ranks are thinning, it is my goal as your Commander in 2009 to assist and guide the members who are currently working on expanding our ranks through our Descendants and the 80th Division IT/TASS, currently serving our Country in the Global War on Terrorism.

We do not receive enough funds from our dues and donations. Our reserve is getting dangerously low and a way must be found to increase reserve funds. We are currently exploring ways and means to increase the reserve, and if any member has any suggestions on how we might do this, please contact me at 301-627-1793 or e-mail eo1793@aol.com

General Patton said, “Whenever we turned the 80th loose on anything, we always knew the objective would be obtained.”

In this spirit, let us move forward and preserve our legacy for years to come.

Eugene (Gene) O'Neil,
National Commander

A New Challenge

Dempsey Prappas who issued a challenge to match his $10,000 to have our Monuments in Fort Benning, GA and at Carlisle Barracks, PA has issued a new challenge. Dempsey has come up with a donation of $50,000 to be matched by either Grants or by the men of the 80th, for the perpetuation of the 80th, by insertions in different magazines and newspapers around the Country, and other means of getting the 80th Division before the eyes of the Public.

Who will be the first to take this challenge?

The Association has received a Thank You Note from the Family of Virgil Myers in the passing of his wife Bobbie.

Just for fun...

Have you heard? An Indian walks into a café with a shotgun in one hand pulling a male buffalo with the other. He says to the waiter: "Want coffee." The Waiter says "sure Chief. Coming right up." He gets the Indian a tall mug of coffee. The Indian drinks the coffee down in one gulp, turns and blasts the buffalo with the shot gun, causing parts of the animal to splatter everywhere and then just walks out.

The next morning the Indian returns. He has his shotgun in one hand, pulling another male buffalo with the other. He walks up to the counter and says to the waiter "Want coffee." The waiter says "Whoa, Tonto! We're still cleaning up your mess from yesterday. What was all that about, anyway?" The Indian smiles and proudly says, "Training for position in United States Congress: Come in, drink coffee, shoot the bull, leave mess for others to clean up, disappear for rest of day."

89th Annual Reunion Recap

The 89th Annual Reunion of the 80th Division Veterans Association is now history. The Descendants of the 80th Division Veterans observed their sixth reunion during this same period—August 13-16, 2008 in Carlisle, PA. At a previous reunion in Columbus, GA, the Veterans had voted to accept the Descendants organization as an auxiliary of their Association, and it has been a privilege for the sons and daughters of the men to become associated with the Veterans in this manner. Many of the WW II heroes are now in their late 80's, with some in their 90's, and it is widely recognized that their numbers are dwindling, and many of them can no longer attend their reunions. The Descendants' goal has been to perpetuate their memories and to preserve their history. They were pleased to be able to assist with this reunion and to take a more active role in preparations for their annual meeting.

Some attendees arrived at the Hotel Carlisle on Tuesday, but most began registering on Wednesday. That evening, a small reception was held, to renew acquaintances and to introduce some comrades who were attending their first reunion since they fought side by side more than sixty years ago.

An early rising was necessitated on Thursday for those who planned to visit Gettysburg. Buses departed the hotel at 8:30 for a tour of the historic Battlefield and a visit to the Eisenhower Farm. Afterward, they all enjoyed lunch at the Dobbin House (a Civil War building utilized as a hospital), before returning to the hotel about four pm. In the evening, the annual Dug-Out Party was held in the grand ballroom of the hotel. A country-western theme was kicked off when PNC Walt Spangler presented Reunion Chairman, Gene O'Neil, with a bandana and T-shirt having a Wanted poster on the front. First-timers were recognized and also presented bandanas for their evening attire. Commander Elmer Dorsten presented gifts to MG David Evans and to Mrs. Evans in respect of their service to the Soldiers and families of the 80th Division. MG Evans is a collector of eagles, and had received several during his farewell dinner in May when he relinquished command of the Division to MG McLaren.. The gift of another eagle from the 80th Division Veterans Association will be added to his growing collection. Mrs. Evans received a porcelain angel to add to her special angel collection. Musical entertainment was provided by Joseph (Barney) Shifflett, friend of Mr. O'Neil from Maryland. A slide presentation of photos taken during their recent European visit was provided by MG David Evans and Dr. Lee Anthony.

Friday morning also had folks moving about very early, as the buses returned to take them all to the Chapel at the Army War College, where Chaplain PNC Angelo Barone conducted the annual Memorial Service for the Veterans who had passed away since the last reunion. A very solemn and poignant service was conducted there with a message of enlightenment from the Base Chaplain, Colonel Arthur Pace. Musical selections were presented by soloist, Jenice Tewksbury and pianist, Linda Bishop. The names of the departed were read by PNCs Max Schmidt, Bob Burrows and Francis Rajnicek. Flag services were provided by the 80th Division (TASS) personnel from Headquarters in Richmond, VA. A bugler from the 80th played TAPS, under direction of SSG Simon Garza. The Memorial Service was dedicated to PNC and Trustee Robert Smith, who passed away in the Spring.

From the Chapel, Reunion attendees were once more bused to the Heritage Trail of the Army Heritage and Education Center where the second monument to Fallen Comrades was dedicated. Lee Anthony, Ph.D., Commander of the Descendants, was the Master of Ceremonies for that service, which opened with the traditional flag ceremony, conducted by the 80th Division (TASS) personnel. Music was provided by the 80th Division (TASS) Brass Quintet. The legacy of the 80th Division was detailed by PNC Max Schmidt and MG David Evans.

Sergeants at Arms, Don Davis of the Veterans Association and Kay Barone of the Ladies Auxiliary, escorted the members of the Memorial Committee to the monument for the unveiling. They were Eugene O'Neil, Chairman and PNCs Max Schmidt, Archer Futch and Bob Burrows. The unveiling was accomplished by Dempsey Prappas, Esq. and Joseph Smith. Mr. Prappas had challenged his fellow Veterans to raise the funds to erect such a memorial four years ago, and matched their contributions. Mr. Smith provided the original draft designs for the monument, first utilized when the original memorial was dedicated at Fort Benning in 2006. A modification was effected in the Carlisle memorial with the addition of a remembrance for the sacrifices of the 80th Division in the Global War on Terrorism. Wreaths were laid in tribute to those who were killed during WW I, WW II and the recent conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. Presenting the wreath for WW I were Roger Nelson and Bruce Smith of the Descendants; Commander Elmer Dorsten and Ladies President Donna Kutsch carried the wreath for WW II, and MG John McLaren, CSM Don Stewart and CSM Doris Wollett paid the tribute to the Soldiers of the 80th who served in the Global War on Terrorism.

The officers of the Descendants of 80th Division Veterans unveiled the Memorial Bench, placed in front of the monument through contributions of the members. A wreath was laid by grandsons of two Veterans and a plaque containing the names of the donors was carried by a granddaughter of another. The committee thanks Travis O'Neil, Gene's grandson, and Robert Burrows Smith, better known to Reunion attendees as "Cookie Monster" and great-grandson of Bob Burrows, and also, Hayley Vinson, granddaughter of Bryan Basden, for their participation in this special event.

As the ceremony came to a close, the rain showers that had held off all morning, dampened the exposed monument, and limited the photo session that many participants had anticipated. The buses took the Veterans and families back to the Hotel Carlisle, and all enjoyed a buffet luncheon there. Some of the folks were able to return to the grounds of AHEC later in the day and again on Saturday where they were able to take pictures and to visit the museum facilities of the history center.

On Friday evening, the Descendants held their annual business meeting in the Oak Room, where displays were established for the duration of the reunion, followed by dinner in the Clarion Room of the hotel. There were more than twenty-five members in attendance for the business meeting—the greatest number ever! Although membership rolls include in excess of 150 names, many of the members are unable to attend the meetings. It was gratifying to have such a large attendance and to have added interest displayed in the planned activities. The current officers were re-elected for the coming year, with the exception that the office of Vice Commander has been filled by the election of Andy Adkins to that post.

The Descendants welcomed the Past National Presidents of the Ladies Auxiliary to their dinner this year. Ordinarily, these ladies dine privately at the same time that the Past National Commanders hold their private dinner meeting. Special tables were reserved for them and for the personnel of the 80th Division (TASS) who performed the musical and flag duties for the reunion. A buffet dinner was served and then Andy Adkins did an excellent job as Master of Ceremonies. He introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Richard Sommers, Ph.D., the Chief Historian for AHEC. Dr. Sommers has been an employee of the Military History Institute (now AHEC) for many years. An expert in Civil War History, Dr. Sommers is also very well versed in the history of the 80th Division, and provided many facts about the 80th in his comments. Dr. Anthony presented a Certificate of Appreciation to all of the personnel of AHEC for their fine cooperation through the years, and the certificate was accepted on their behalf by Dr. Sommers.

Roger Nelson encouraged Veterans and families to seek enrollment in the Hall of Valor, a special place of recognition for Pennsylvania Soldiers who have received awards of Silver Star and above. He then presented a set of WW I photos to MG David Evans, as a token of appreciation for his service to the 80th Division. MG Evans assignment as Commander of the 80th Division ended in May when he turned over the Command to MG John McLaren. Both of the Generals, as well as several other officers of the 80th Division attended the Descendants' dinner.

On Saturday morning, the men participated in the business meeting and election of officers of the Association, while the women attended similar meetings and conducted a memorial service for the Ladies Auxiliary. Max Schmidt was elected as Second Vice Commander, the only change in officers for the men. Kay Rajnicek took over as President of the Ladies Auxiliary, with Naomi Brockman elected as Treasurer, relieving Helen Beers, who held that office for a number of years. The Ladies Luncheon was served at 12:30, followed by installation of the new officers. The items that had been donated to support the Ladies work with VA Hospitals were distributed to those who had bought chances for them.

On Saturday evening, nearly 200 attended the Annual Dinner in the hotel ballroom. PNC Barone acted as Master of Ceremonies and introduced those seated at the head table: newly installed Commander, Eugene O'Neil and his wife, Ivy; newly installed President of the Auxiliary, Kay Rajnicek and her husband, PNC Francis Rajnicek; outgoing President of the Auxiliary, Donna Kutsch; outgoing Commander, Elmer Dorsten; speaker, MG John McLaren; PNC Barone's wife, Kay. Following a beef or chicken dinner served by the hotel staff, MG McLaren addressed the attendees, and explained the difficulties he personally faced as he was notified of the tragic deaths of his men while serving in Iraq. But, he remains steadfast in his belief that the 80th Division Soldiers were deployed to Iraq with the same convictions that the 80th Division Soldiers were sent into combat in Europe six decades ago—to preserve the peace and democracy of the United States.

Musical selections were presented by the 80th Division (TASS) Brass Quintet prior to the dinner, and again following the conclusion of the formal program for the evening.

Four days of activity came to a close with farewells and hopes that everyone will be able to attend the 90th Annual Reunion in 2009—date and location to be announced. CSM Donald Stewart is Senior Vice Commander and Reunion Chairman, and his plans are not confirmed, but information will be forwarded to everyone as soon as possible.

Another loved and active Past President ROSE CISTOLO of the Ladies passed away on July 6, 2008, after a long illness. Rose attended many of the reunions until just a few years back. Many of you know her as the wife of Past National Commander Felix Cistolo. Rose will also be remembered for bringing many Bake Goods to the reunions when she owned and ran a Bakery in Ellwood City, PA. Also for the smile she always had on her face. She will certainly be missed.
