- I - Award of Silver Star Medal.
- II thru VI - Award of Bronze Star Medal.
- VII - Award of Medical Badge.
- VIII thru X - Award of Purple Heart (Oak Leaf Cluster).
- XI - Award of Purple Heart.
- XII - Rescission.

I. AWARD OF SILVER STAR MEDAL: By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Silver Star Medal is awarded the following named personnel:

RILEY C. COUCH, 34820463, Pfc, Co K, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For gallantry in action in LUXEMBOURG on 19 January 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. While advancing with a weapons platoon near NOCHER, LUXEMBOURG, Pfc COUCH, a runner, was surprised by a pocket of enemy. With disregard for personal safety, he exposed himself to deliver a heavy volume of automatic fire on the enemy's ranks and persisted until seriously wounded. His courage and aggressiveness allowed his comrades to take positions and exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from GEORGIA.

COI
✓ JOHN C. FUREDI, 02015811, 2d Lt (then T Sgt), Infantry, 318th Infantry, United States Army. For gallantry in action in GERMANY on 31 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. With the mission of assaulting and seizing NEIDER MOLLRICH, GERMANY, Lt FUREDI'S company was temporarily delayed by severe mortar, and automatic weapons fire. Exposing himself to the hostile concentrations, he contacted and inspired his men to charge through the impact area and rout the enemy from well concealed positions. The gallant leadership, initiative, and sincere devotion to duty displayed by Lt FUREDI exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from PENNSYLVANIA.

COA
✓ GEORGE H. WILLIAMS, 0533516, 1st Lt, Infantry, 318th Infantry, United States Army. For gallantry in action in FRANCE on 21 November 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Near LAUDERFANG, FRANCE, while leading a reconnaissance patrol, Lt WILLIAMS observed an enemy machine gun. Halting the patrol, he, with utter disregard for safety, crawled to the emplacement, pulled the gun from the position, and killed the crew. His actions drawing fire, he returned to the patrol and skillfully led them to safety. Lt WILLIAMS' aggressiveness, leadership, and courage are commensurate with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from TEXAS.

II. AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL: By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded the following named personnel:

J. D. BELT, 38294403, Pfc, 80th Cavalry Reconnaissance Troop, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 28 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. At MEDENBACH, GERMANY, Pfc BELT, and three companions, drove over exposed terrain and delivered such effective fire on the enemy that they entered the town before the hostile forces could organize a proper defense. This action allowed additional platoons to advance and destroy thirty vehicles and capture 215 prisoners. Pfc BELT'S initiative, courage, and devotion to duty exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from ARKANSAS.

GEORGE W. DEQUIS, 36890254, Pfc, Hq Co, 317th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 1 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. While proceeding to high ground to establish an observation post near BIERSDORF, GERMANY, Pfc DEQUIS was surprised by a hostile force. With disregard for personal safety, he crawled through the severe hostile fire to reach his objective and radioed valuable information to his unit. His courage and perseverance reflect great credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from MICHIGAN.

JAMES H. DERRICK, 34097105, S Sgt, Co A, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 1 April 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Near KASSEL, GERMANY, when his platoon was temporarily delayed and two men seriously wounded, S Sgt DERRICK, with two companions, left his position of comparative safety and crawled sixty yards over exposed terrain and through hostile fire to aid and evacuate his wounded comrades. His courage and devotion to duty probably saved their lives and exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from SOUTH CAROLINA.

MENIPHEE DEW, 34848977, Pfc, Co B, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in LUXEMBOURG on 28 December 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. At RINGEL, LUXEMBOURG Pfc DEW, and a companion, volunteered to protect a weakened flank of his company after a severe enemy artillery barrage. As he took position under intense hostile fire, four enemy troops approached him. He immediately exposed himself and killed two, wounded another, and captured the fourth. His courage and aggressiveness were responsible for the halting of an enemy attack and exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from SOUTH CAROLINA.

III. AWARD OF BRONZE STAR MEDAL: By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded the following named personnel:

JOSEPH J. GORETSKI, 33354672, Tec 5, Hq Co 2d Bn, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 13 February 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. When infantrymen had expended their ammunition in AMMELDINGEN, GERMANY, Tec 5 GORETSKI volunteered to replenish their supply. Over a road uncleared of mines, he drove his truck loaded with high explosives into the town which was still an impact area for severe hostile artillery barrages. The disregard for personal safety and sincere devotion to duty displayed by Tec 5 GORETSKI exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from PENNSYLVANIA.

VICTOR N. P. GREENE, 32591353, Sgt (then Pfc), Hq Co, 317th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in LUXEMBOURG on 27 and 28 January 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Near WILTZ, LUXEMBOURG, although ambushed by enemy troops, and subject to severe hostile fire, Sgt GREENE abandoned his vehicle to disengage the enemy and report with valuable information to his company commander. Under intense artillery fire, he led a patrol in the recovery of his vehicle on the next day. Sgt GREENE'S courage and devotion to duty are commensurate with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from NEW JERSEY.

✓ JOHN D. JOHNSON, 34784382, Pfc, Co B, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY from 8 to 10 February 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During the initial phase of the assault on the Siegfried Line, near WALLENDORF, GERMANY, Pfc JOHNSON, a cook's helper, under severe enemy fire, assisted in carrying necessary supplies to the front. His work, beyond his normal duties, contributed immeasurably to the successful destruction of the enemy defense. His courage and determination are commensurate with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from GEORGIA.

✓ HOWARD B. JONES, 35848683, Pfc, Co A, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 1 April 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Near KASSEL, GERMANY, when his platoon was temporarily delayed and two men seriously wounded, Pfc JONES, with two companions, left his position of comparative safety and crawled sixty yards over exposed terrain and through hostile fire to aid and evacuate his wounded comrades. His courage and devotion to duty probably saved their lives and exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from OHIO.

LOUIS J. LIFTON, 01296719, 1st Lt, Infantry, 317th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 12 April 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Near MARBACK, GERMANY, Lt LIFTON'S reconnaissance patrol was delayed by intense enemy small arms fire. Voluntarily, he alone crawled through the hostile fire to within thirty yards of the enemy positions. After returning, Lt LIFTON submitted information which aided greatly in neutralizing the hostile fortifications. His aggressiveness, courage, and sincere devotion to duty exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from ILLINOIS.

JOSEPH N. LOVELESS, JR., 35907685, Pfc, 80th Cavalry Reconnaissance Troop, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY on 28 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. At MEDENBACH, GERMANY, Pfc LOVELESS, and three companions, drove over exposed terrain and delivered such effective fire on the enemy that they entered the town before the hostile forces could organize a proper defense. This action allowed additional platoons to advance and destroy thirty vehicles and capture 215 prisoners. Pfc LOVELESS' initiative, courage, and devotion to duty exemplify the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from INDIANA.

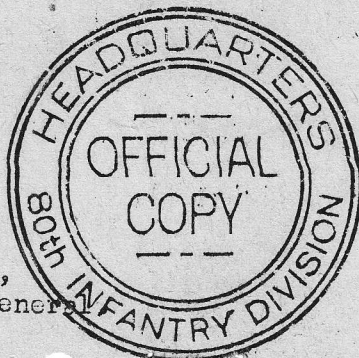

RALPH M. PATTERSON, 33247043, Tec 5, Co B, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY from 8 to 10 February 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During the initial phase of the assault on the Siegfried Line near WALLENDORF, GERMANY, Tec 5 PATTERSON, a second cook, under severe enemy fire, assisted in carrying necessary supplies to the front. His work, beyond his normal duties, contributed immeasurably to the successful destruction of the enemy defense. His courage and determination are commensurate with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from PENNSYLVANIA.

DONALD W. POHLMAYER, 35314269, Tec 5, Co B, 319th Infantry, United States Army. For heroic achievement in GERMANY from 8 to 10 February 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During the initial phase of the assault on the Siegfried Line near WALLENDORF, GERMANY, Tec 5 POHLMAYER, a Mail Clerk, under severe enemy fire, assisted in carrying necessary supplies to the front. His work, beyond his normal duties, contributed immeasurably to the successful destruction of the enemy defense. His courage and determination are commensurate with the highest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from OHIO.
