RECORD OF EVENTS

Company in defensive position. Hot chow being served.

Company G, 316th Infantry Regiment, is cited for outstanding performance of duty in action against the enemy on 26 December 1944. The company attacked the main enemy line of resistance south of Bastogne, Belgium. The assault was launched with a total Company strength of forty-two men. The men neither slept nor rested for five days and nights. Attacking the village of Grand Rue, Belgium, through snow and freezing temperatures, the Company in bitter house to house fighting soon cleared the town, capturing thirty-five prisoners. Continuing the assault, the Company entered the strongly held woods north of Grand Rue. Fighting with grim determination, the indomitable rifleman charged through the intense fire.

capturing many prisoners and equipment and clearing the woods of all enemy resistance. The accomplishments of these forty-two men fighting under extremely adverse conditions included the capture of one hundred and seventy-five prisoners, two 88mm and two AT guns, the killing and wounding of many enemy soldiers, the destruction of thirty machine guns, three ammunition trucks, and the capture of large stores of food, equipment, and ammunition. The fighting courage and heroic aggressiveness displayed by the intrepid infantrymen of Company G, 318th Infantry, reflects the finest traditions of the Army of the United States.
