TALES FROM HENPECK

Since WWII men of the 314th FA have been relating a wide range of stories about their experiences or incidents that occurred during the battalion's service overseas. Unfortunately, many of these tales are now lost because of fading memories or the demise of our comrades who told them.

Many individual recollections of those days are contained in The 314th FA Bn in the ETO - A Footnote to History - a classic best seller - which prodded the memories of others to tell their stories. Therefore, to enhance the folklore of the 314th FA, Tales from Henpeck assembles those additional stories inspired by the first endeavor.

The tales related herein, in general, are arranged in the order they probably occurred as Henpeck advanced through Europe.
