SECTION

- I - Award of Bronze Star, Posthumously.
- II - Award of Bronze Star.

I. AWARD OF BRONZE STAR, POSTHUMOUSLY: By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded, posthumously, to the following named personnel:

Paul S. Parsons, 33185085, T Sgt, Inf, Army of the United States. For heroic service in France and Luxembourg during the period 7 August 1944, to 14 January 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During the period 7 August 1944, to 14 January 1945, T Sgt Parsons distinguished himself in performing his duties in a courageous manner. Serving as a platoon sergeant of an infantry rifle company, he demonstrated coolness under fire and outstanding ability as a leader. His initiative, tactical knowledge, and dependability under the most trying combat conditions have contributed immeasurably to the successful operations of his unit. The bravery, resourcefulness, and unselfish devotion to duty displayed by T Sgt Parsons are in keeping with the finest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Pennsylvania.

II. AWARD OF BRONZE STAR: By direction of the President, under the provisions of Army Regulations 600-45, dated 22 September 1943, as amended, the Bronze Star Medal is awarded the following named personnel:

Milton H. Beinke, 36900905, Pfc, CMP, Army of the United States. For meritorious service in France, Luxembourg, and Germany during the period 25 August 1944, to 9 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Entered military service from Illinois.

Harry F. Brownworth, Jr, 35330880, Pvt, Inf, Army of the United States. For heroic service in France and Luxembourg during the period 7 August 1944, to 31 December 1944, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. During the period 7 August 1944, to 31 December 1944, Pvt Brownworth distinguished himself in performing his duties in a superior manner. Serving as a platoon scout with an infantry company, he has, with utter disregard for his own safety, repeatedly reconnoitered deep into enemy territory and returned with valuable information. His skillful selection of concealed routes has been of material assistance in facilitating the successful advances of his unit. The courage, efficiency, and constant devotion to duty displayed by Pvt Brownworth are in keeping with the finest traditions of the armed forces of the United States. Entered military service from Ohio.

Glen E. Clark, 35330197, S Sgt, Inf, Army of the United States. For meritorious service in France, Luxembourg, Belgium, and Germany during the period 12 August 1944, to 6 March 1945, in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States. Entered military service from Ohio.
