and Booby Traps. At 1820 an accidental explosion occurred in the building quarantining 1st, 3rd, Hq Platoons and Company CP. One officer & ten EM were killed and one officer and 22 EM were injured, of the 22, 15 were serious. The uninjured men in the company displayed great courage and skill in removing injured and dead from the rubble. Medical aid was furnished by Infantry Medics until arrival of our own medics. At 2200, the company was given hot coffee and apparently settled for the night, but at 0200, 22 ct 44 enemy shells landed in the town setting fire to a house just down the street from the company area, so the company sought shelter, for the remainder of the night, in hospital cellars. All Non-Battle Casualties occurred in France.
