A further factor with regard to the impact of the 1997 election on the political environment is the fact that the political environment was not as stable as it had been in the past. The political environment was characterized by a high level of political instability and a lack of political consensus. This was due to the fact that the political environment was characterized by a high level of political instability and a lack of political consensus. This was due to the fact that the political environment was characterized by a high level of political instability and a lack of political consensus.
