Third Platoon plus one squad of First Platoon attached to 319th Infantry with mission to blow up bridges at Liverdun. The Engineers following the Infantry column were attacked by 3 tiger tanks from their rear. As the tanks opened fire all engineers plus infantry deployed to fight the tanks. Tanks had the advantage and we were helpless without anti-tank guns. Our bazookas opened up on the tanks but without much success. The tiger tanks were too heavily armored for the bazookas to be effective. The engineers did

RECORD OF EVENTS

Dpl Van Trieste and Pvt Radigan accompanied an Infantry black face patrol at 1900.

21 Sept 44 to get the engineer situation of the river to be patrolled. Patrolled the river of Pont Sur Seille. The patrol was fired upon with small arms fire. All necessary information was secured and the patrol returned without any casualties.

The platoon, less one squad, went out to lay mines at the ford of Pont Sur Seille and also at Monville Sur Seille to block the roads. These blocks were put in to delay the enemy in case of a counter-attack by their mechanized units. Mission completed with no casualties.

Platoons today, 22 Sept 44, are removing mines and booby traps and trying to clear a route for MSR but the enemy resistance is too great on the road from Etton to Manoncourt.

RECORD OF EVENTS

Lt. Orton with 12 EM went out to lay mines in the wooded area between Menoneurt Sur Seille and Landremont. Started work about nightfall and worked thruout the night. During the operation the enemy was shooting flares, mortars, and light artillery which slowed up the work to a great extent. An American patrol was operating in the same area and evidently were discovered by the enemy as the rate of fire was intensified, with the engineers in the middle of it. 61 anti-personnel and 26 AT mines were laid, mission was completed at 0600. Altho the party was operating within small area range of the enemy, the mission was completed with no casualties.
