RECORD OF EVENTS

Received radio message from reconnaissance saying they had received a note from a French boy, written by Opl Scacco, Co "A" of the Engineers, stating that he was in a serious condition and had been wounded for 35 hours and was badly in need of medical attention. Opl Scacco was located in Taule, France.

The battalion surgeon and party proceeded to destination in enemy territory. On arrival he found Cpl Scacco, a French & a German wounded. While there they also captured two additional Germans. Medical aid was administered to the wounded and then the battalion surgeon, the wounded and prisoners returned safely to their own lines. The battalion surgeon and party were the first Americans to enter this town.
