moved forward to Longdorf. Hot chow and dry socks were sent up to the men. The morale is good. 9 Feb 45. Company remains in same area. Men well dug in fox-holes and holding positions, being on the alert at all times. Hot coffee is taken to the men as often as possible, usually twice a day. Weather continues to be miserable. Clean socks are issued daily. Morale is high. 10 Feb 45. Company remains in same area with the men still holding their positions. Very little enemy action can be seen, but occasionally a few Artillery and Mortar Shells are dropped nearby. Hot coffee is served daily to the men and a clean change of socks are issued daily. Weather is still miserable but in spite of it, the health of the men is excellent. Morale is high. 11 Feb 45. Co remains in same area, still holding same positions. Not much enemy action except for a few mortar and artillery shells which are dropped in occasionally. Very little small arms fire is being received. Company health is good with the exception of a few colds, mostly due to

NAME	SERIAL NUMBER	GRADE	MOB	CODE
Artillery shells are being dropped nearby and little small arms fire which as yet failed to do damage to anyone. Weather continues to be favorable to us with rain, cold and biting wind. Several colds in company, but quick Medical treatment avoids serious illness. 13 Feb 45. Company remains in same area with Reg still holding positions. The weather continues to be cold and rainy. Several men have colds, but none have been serious. Heavy small arms fire is heard at times. Mortar and artillery shells continue to land nearby, but as yet, none have injured anyone. Morale is high. Chase of rocks still. 14 Feb 45. At 1930, 13 Feb 45, heavy MI and small arms fire was received along our entire front. The concentration lasted approximately 10 minutes. Our attached mortar and artillery immediately opened up on positions where fire was coming from. Not a shot was heard thereafter. Our lines were at the alert all night for a possible enemy counter attack. Weather is fair. Morale is high.

RECORD OF EVENTS

16 Feb 45. Company still remains in same area with men on the alert at all times and holding positions. Very little activity along our entire front. Occasional shells land nearby, but as yet, have done ~~no~~ caused damage. As yet we have had no casualties. Socks are changed as often as possible. Hot coffee goes to the front line twice a day. Five men from each platoon come to CP daily to wash and rest. 17 Feb 45. Company remains in same area with men still holding positions. Many small arms fire can be heard throughout the day, but very little directed at our lines. Change of weather enables men to dry their wet clothing and equipment. Morale is high. Coffee is served twice daily, and socks are changed as often as
