break, which caused many ~~more~~ casualties. Reinforcements were sent up to strengthen our positions. Tanks and aircraft support were also given to us which helped a great deal to stop the enemy counter attack. Heavy artillery is still being used against our positions. 30 Sep 44 Location same. The situation was much improved. Enemy action was at a lull. An enemy patrol tried to infiltrate through the lines during darkness but they were repelled. There was intermittent artillery fire during the morning which stopped almost completely early in the afternoon. Several new replacements were assigned to the company and some of the old men returned to duty. Some enemy mortar shells landed in the Co area early in the evening.

RECORD OF EVENTS

4 Oct 44 Rather quiet today. A few enemy shells landed ~~near~~ rather close to our area. Large force of friendly bombers passed overhead. Friendly bombers attacked enemy positions late in the day. 5 day Oct 44 This morning was cloudy and began to rain. This afternoon the rain let up but the wind started to blow and it was uncomfortable. The enemy shelled our rear area rather heavily this afternoon. A few replacements arrived also the weekly PX rations arrived.

RECORD OF EVENTS

7 Oct 44 No enemy activity reported last nite. Both sides exchanged artillery firing. Units of the 26th Inf Div arrived late last nite and occupied positions along side of us. We are to be relieved by this unit ~~xxx~~ but as yet, we are still in position as the order to withdraw has not arrived but is expected tonight. The weather was rather beautiful today, our fighters were over all day. This ~~afternoon~~ afternoon a few enemy shells landed in the 2nd pltn position killing one ~~SA~~. No other casualties or damage. Late this evening the enemy layed down a smoke screen to our extreme left. No one knows the reason for it.

Several EM attended church services this afternoon. Also there will be movies at the Bn tonite. Everybody has dug a slit ~~trench~~ trench and set up pup tents. Seems like everybody is satisfied. Friendly fighters passed over several times and we can hear our artillery firing at a distance. Supper is all moist over and the Co is getting ready to see the movies. 9 Oct 44 Today the weather was very cloudy and cold. This evening it is starting to drizzle. This morning, the Co had a hour of calisthenics and one hour of close order drill. At 1030, the 3rd Pltn attended a movie at the Bn area. The picture was "Cover Girl" with Rita Hayworth. The rest of the morning was spent in inspections by pltn ldrs. This afternoon 75EM attended the same movie. A little later the Clubmobile arrived at the Bn and everybody enjoyed coffee and donuts. This evening Mr Mowen, our personnel officer arrived with the payroll and most of the company was paid. Several EM are getting money orders. Artillery firing is heard from a distance. No air activity today.
